FEBRUARY 2020

TO ALL NORTH CENTRAL DISTRICT PASTORS AND CHURCHES:

Greetings from the District office. This message concerns eligibility for voting in the business session of our upcoming district conference, April 27-28, 2020 at Constance EFC, Andover, MN. (Anyone may register for and attend the conference; this notice concerns eligibility for official voting at the business session.)

WHAT IS THIS ALL ABOUT?

New requirements and procedures for conference voting went into effect in 2009. Please be aware of these new and officially required procedures. They are designed to help safeguard the integrity of conference voting.

WHY IS THIS IMPORTANT TO ME AND MY CHURCH?

If you do not follow these procedures, which are called for in the bylaws, you may not be able to vote at district conference. This may be so even if you are a pastor! So please take some time to acquaint yourself with these matters.

SO WHO CAN VOTE AT DISTRICT CONFERENCE?

To be eligible to vote at the District Conference, you must be a duly credentialed delegate. (See bylaws Article 6.D. on page 4 of this packet.)

WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY “CREDENTIALLED”?

Here “credentialed” refers to conference credentialing, not ministerial credentialing (licensing and certification/ordination). However, as you will see, ministerial credentialing does affect conference credentialing.

WHAT IS A “DULY CREDENTIALLED DELEGATE”?

There are two categories of credentialed delegates:

- 1) Designated delegates. These are delegates who are officially selected by their local Free Church.

If you are not ...

- a pastoral staff member of an NCD church and holding active ministry credentials with the EFCA
- a member of the NCD Board of Directors, or
- a church planter approved by the NCD and holding active ministry credentials with the EFCA

... you must be duly designated by your church as a conference delegate in order to be eligible to vote.

2) Other delegates

If you are in one or more of the categories above, and you are registered for the district conference, you will automatically be a conference delegate who is eligible to vote.

SO IF I'M A PASTOR I CAN VOTE?

Not necessarily! Please note that being a pastor does not automatically confer voting privileges on you. You must fall in one of the categories above. If you do not hold active EFCA ministry credentials or the NCD Board of Directors, you will not be a voting delegate to the conference unless your church duly designates you a delegate.

WHAT IF I HOLD ACTIVE EFCA MINISTRY CREDENTIALS BUT I'M NOT ON A PASTORAL STAFF?

You must be duly designated by your local church as a conference delegate.

IF I'M A LAY PERSON CAN I VOTE?

Yes, but only if your church duly designates you a conference delegate.

WHAT'S OUR NEXT STEP TO MAKE SURE THAT I AND OTHERS FROM OUR CHURCH WILL BE ABLE TO VOTE?

If you are licensed or certified with the EFCA (or you belong to the Ministerial Association or the NCD Board of Directors), you need only be registered for the conference. All others must be duly designated by your church as conference delegates.

HOW DOES A CHURCH DESIGNATE DELEGATES?

The NCD bylaw does not specify a process; it only states that the church must select its delegates. The process is left up to the local church. It should be official and should be characterized by reasonable communication and accountability. Examples would include (but not necessarily be limited to):

- Action at a congregational meeting
- Action by the church governing board

HOW MANY DELEGATES IS OUR CHURCH ALLOWED?

See the accompanying form.

HOW DOES A CHURCH REPORT ITS DELEGATES TO THE DISTRICT OFFICE?

Please submit the attached form. On it you will identify both categories of delegates: designated and other.

WHEN AND WHERE DO WE SUBMIT THE FORM?

Please send the delegate form to our office by April 13th, 2020. It can be sent by regular mail, faxed (612-338-1519), or emailed (ncd@ncdefca.org). Our mailing address is 711 10th Ave S, Minneapolis, MN 55415.

WHAT, THEN, ARE OUR NEXT STEPS?

- Have the church governing board determine a workable selection process for duly designating conference delegates.
- Invite individuals from your church to be conference delegates.
- Formally select and designate delegates.
- Complete the accompanying form and submit it to the district office by April 13, 2020

I HAVE SOME ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS ABOUT ALL THIS.
